COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES:

IBMS 6090 Seminar Course
This course is required of all students in the IBMS program, except for those who have signed up for Final Hours. Students are required to attend a minimum of 16 seminars per semester and to complete a requirement to demonstrate their attendance and participation. To fulfill the minimum number of seminars, students may include seminars offered by disciplines other than their own in which they are enrolled. However, students should obtain approval from the course co-director of their individual discipline. The course numbers are IBMS 6090-1GEN, 6090-2BA, 6090-3CB, 6090-4CGM, 6090-5III, 6090-6MBB, 6090-7NS, and 6090-8PP for the seven (7) IBMS Disciplines: the Biology of Aging (BA), Cancer Biology (CB), Cell Biology, Genetics & Molecular Medicine (CGM), Infections, Inflammation & Immunity (III), Molecular Biophysics & Biochemistry (MBB), Neuroscience (NS), and Physiology & Pharmacology (PP). Students who have not declared a discipline should sign up for IBMS 6090-1GEN. Grading will be Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory. A list of seminars from all disciplines will be posted on the Graduate School Web site. Each discipline course co-director will determine, for the discipline, the policy for tracking student’s attendance and participation in seminars. The individual policy for each discipline is described below.

IBMS 6090-7NS, Pharmacology: Course Co-Director: Jason Pugh, Ph.D.
Students are required to attend a minimum of 16 seminars per semester. Students attending the Pharmacology Departmental Seminars must sign-in to document their attendance. Students may include attendance at UTHSCSA seminars of interest offered by disciplines other than the Pharmacology Discipline. Students are asked to notify the Course Co-Director of IBMS 6090 (Jason Pugh) of their attendance at seminars other than those offered in the Pharmacology Departmental seminar series, within 1 week of attendance. Student sign-in sheets provided at seminar sites will be used to determine student attendance at all Pharmacology Discipline seminars. Students are responsible for ensuring they have signed in.
A list of all attended seminars may also be required at the end of term. Students that have confirmed attendance by sign-in sheet to all Pharmacology Discipline are not required to provide a list of attended seminars at the end of the semester.

Attendance at symposiums/conferences/meetings can be substituted for a seminar attendance but prior approval must be obtained from the Course Co-Director (Jason Pugh). Webinars (and other remote media-based presentations) are unsuitable replacements for the seminar requirements provided here.

TITLE IX AT UTHSCSA

Title IX Defined:
Title of the Education Amendments of 1972 is a federal law that prohibits sex discrimination in education. It reads “no person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.”

University of Texas Health Science Center San Antonio’s Commitment:
University of Texas Health Science Center San Antonio (UTHSCSA) is committed to maintaining a learning environment that is free from discriminatory conduct based on gender. As required by Title IX, UTHSCSA does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education programs and activities, and it encourages any student, faculty, or staff member who thinks that he or she has been subjected to sex discrimination, sexual harassment (including sexual violence) or sexual misconduct to immediately report the incident to the Title IX Director.

In an emergency, victims of sexual abuse should call 911. For non-emergencies, they may contact UPD at 210-567-2800. Additional information may be obtained at http://students.uthscsa.edu/titleix/

EMAIL POLICY: Every student is issued a University e-mail address and account at the time of enrollment. As a matter of University Policy, communications between students and faculty that occur using the student’s University e-mail address is considered official business. Therefore, students are expected to check their university email inboxes on a regular basis so that any announcements, instructions, or information regarding this course will be received in a timely way. Missed communications due to inadequate monitoring of incoming emails on the University’s email server will never be a valid excuse for unsatisfactory academic progress

USE OF RECORDING DEVICES: Recording of lectures and other learning activities in this course by any means (e.g., video, audio, etc.) is only permitted if approved by the instructor or required for compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

ELECTRONIC DEVICES: Cell phones must be turned off during all class meetings and exams. Computers and electronic tablets are allowed only for participating in classroom activities (e.g., viewing slides presented in lecture or conference materials). No texting, tweeting, emailing, web-surfing, gaming, or any use of electronic devices that is not directly connected with classroom activities is permitted.
